HOW TO USE THIS LIST

Most people never start because they don't know what to hand over.

As Erika says, “a confused mind does nothing.” So here is everything, in one place. Go through it with a pen.

1

Tick it

Tick every task you would hand off if you could.

2

Note the hours

Write down roughly how many hours a week it takes you now.

3

Pick five

On the last page, choose the five to hand off first.
